The APPRAL received information last night that Capt. Harvey Mathes was being urged by his friends to enter the lists against President Hadden in the coming municipal election. A reporter was at once sent out to trace the report to an authorized election. A reporter was at the Strangers' Church, listening to the Sweet strains of "Way Down Upon the Sewance River," and lost, in the melody evoked by the rare art of a lady singer. After the last lingering notes of the touching bellad had died away the reporter approached Capt. Mathes and gently and by easy stages led him from the ideal to the real.
